Make provision with respect to entering into Recognizances and finding Sureties in certain cases in Ireland. A.D. 1901.

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

- 5 1.—(1.) The power of a court of summary jurisdiction in Ireland upon complaint of any person, including a person expressly or impliedly authorised in that behalf by the Crown, to adjudge a person to enter into a recognizance and find sureties to keep the peace, or to be of good behaviour towards all His Majesty's 10 subjects, or towards such first-mentioned person alone, shall be exercised by an order upon complaint, and the Summary Jurisdiction Acts shall apply accordingly, and the complainant and defendant and witnesses may be called and examined and cross-examined, and the complainant and defendant shall be subject to 15 costs as in the case of any other complaint.
- (2.) The court may order the defendant, in default of compliance with the order, to be imprisoned for a period not exceeding, if the court be a petty sessional court, six months, and if the court be a court of summary jurisdiction, other than a petty sessional court, 20 fourteen days.
- (3.) The expression "a petty sessional court" in this section means a court of summary jurisdiction constituted within the police district of Dublin metropolis, of one of the divisional justices of that district sitting at a police court within the district, and elsewhere of a resident magistrate appointed under the Constabulary (Ireland) Act, 1836, sitting alone or with others, or of two or more 25 justices sitting in petty sessions at a place appointed for holding sessions. 6 & 7 WILL. 4. c. 13.

2. This Act may be cited as the Summary Jurisdiction (Ireland) Act, 1901. Short title.
